Natural life

Protection program for the sea turtle*

Visit our turtle nursery, while learning about the efforts we make to protect them. If Mother Nature allows it, live one of the most wonderful experiences when releasing a small turtle at sunset. Ask our Recreation team about it.

Ext. 6360

The whales have arrived*

From December to March these giants of nature migrate from the north to reproduce. If you're lucky, while sunbathing on the beach or from your high-rise balcony you can watch them leap across the Bay, or you can book a tour and maybe listen to their magical song.

*Both activities are subject to Nature's own conditions.

Kings thread

For more than 400 years, it has been a tradition of Mexican culture to break the thread on January 6 for the arrival of the 3 wise men in Bethlehem.

The celebration of this Christian event is known as epiphany, which refers to the meeting that symbolizes the kings thread.

Join us to celebrate our traditions with a giant Kings thread and exquisite hot chocolate.

You can also find it at Deli Los Mangos.
